Coffey Bros., Hospital Both Win in Slow-Pitch Softball Play

CHARLESTON — Coffey Brothers and Charleston Hospital both won a pair of games last week in men's slow-pitch softball play.

Coffey Bros., leading the National League with a 12-2 record, nipped Ed's Sunoco 9-8 and dropped Charleston National Bank 18-6. Charleston Hospital boosted its record to 8-5 in National League play by beating Trailmobile 12-4 and taking a 25-10 win over the Bank of Charleston.

In the American League, the Ashmore Merchants are sailing along with an 11-1 record while Sporty's is 10-2 with Mother's and Everett-Hutton tied at 9-3.

Games reported include:

Charleston Hospital 25 Bank of Charleston 10: The Hospital rapped 24 hits and had home runs by Charlie Carpenter, Jim Drake and Jerry Garrett.

Kim Frank also had five hits in the 27-hit attack.

Coffey Bros. 18 Charleston National Bank 6: Winning pitcher Cyril Coartney had four singles to lead the league leaders.

Greg Kile, Bob Washburn, Frank Horn and Mike Spaniol all had three hits while Steve Wuellner had a single, double and home run.

Ross Bennett added a homer and double. Coffey Bros. scored in every inning but the fifth and took an 11-1 lead after two innings.

Coffey Bros. 9 Ed's Sunoco 8: Coffey's took an 8-4 lead after three innings and did not score again until the top of the seventh.

That run was the winner, however, as Ed's scored once in the fifth and three times in the bottom of the seventh.

Tom Cosat had a single and triple to lead the winners while Ross Bennett and Greg Kile each had two singles. Steve Wuellner had a home run.

Ashmore Merchants 8 Mother's 7: Ashmore Merchants had to score twice in the bottom of the eighth to take an extra inning win.

Leading 6-3 after five innings, Ashmore Merchants yielded three runs to Mother's in the seventh to tie the game. Mother's scored once in the top of the eighth before the league-leading Merchants tallied twice in the bottom of the frame.

Tony Comstock led the hitting with three singles while Mike Cloninger reached base three times on two hits and a walk. Mark Doris also had two hits while Jeff Moore socked a home run.

Sporty's 8 Everett-Hutton 6: Sporty's kept pace in the American League scoring four times in the sixth to overcome a 6-4 deficit.

Duane Mitch led Sporty's with four hits while Steve Franklin had the key hit in the sixth to spark the four-run rally.

Willie Ruberg turned in a clutch doubleplay to snuff out a seventh inning Everett-Hutton rally.
